Co-production

We're proud to have an established Influencers Group, made up of supported individuals from our homes. This group plays a pivotal role in shaping our plans, ensuring they are genuinely aligned with the needs and aspirations of all those living in a Liaise home.

By listening to people with lived experience, we bring an enriched, authentic perspective to everything we do. From policy and practice reviews to designing new homes, their voices directly influence our approach to key working, goal setting, and designing services.

Our commitment to co-production means creating meaningful partnerships that drive inclusion and deliver homes truly tailored to those we support.

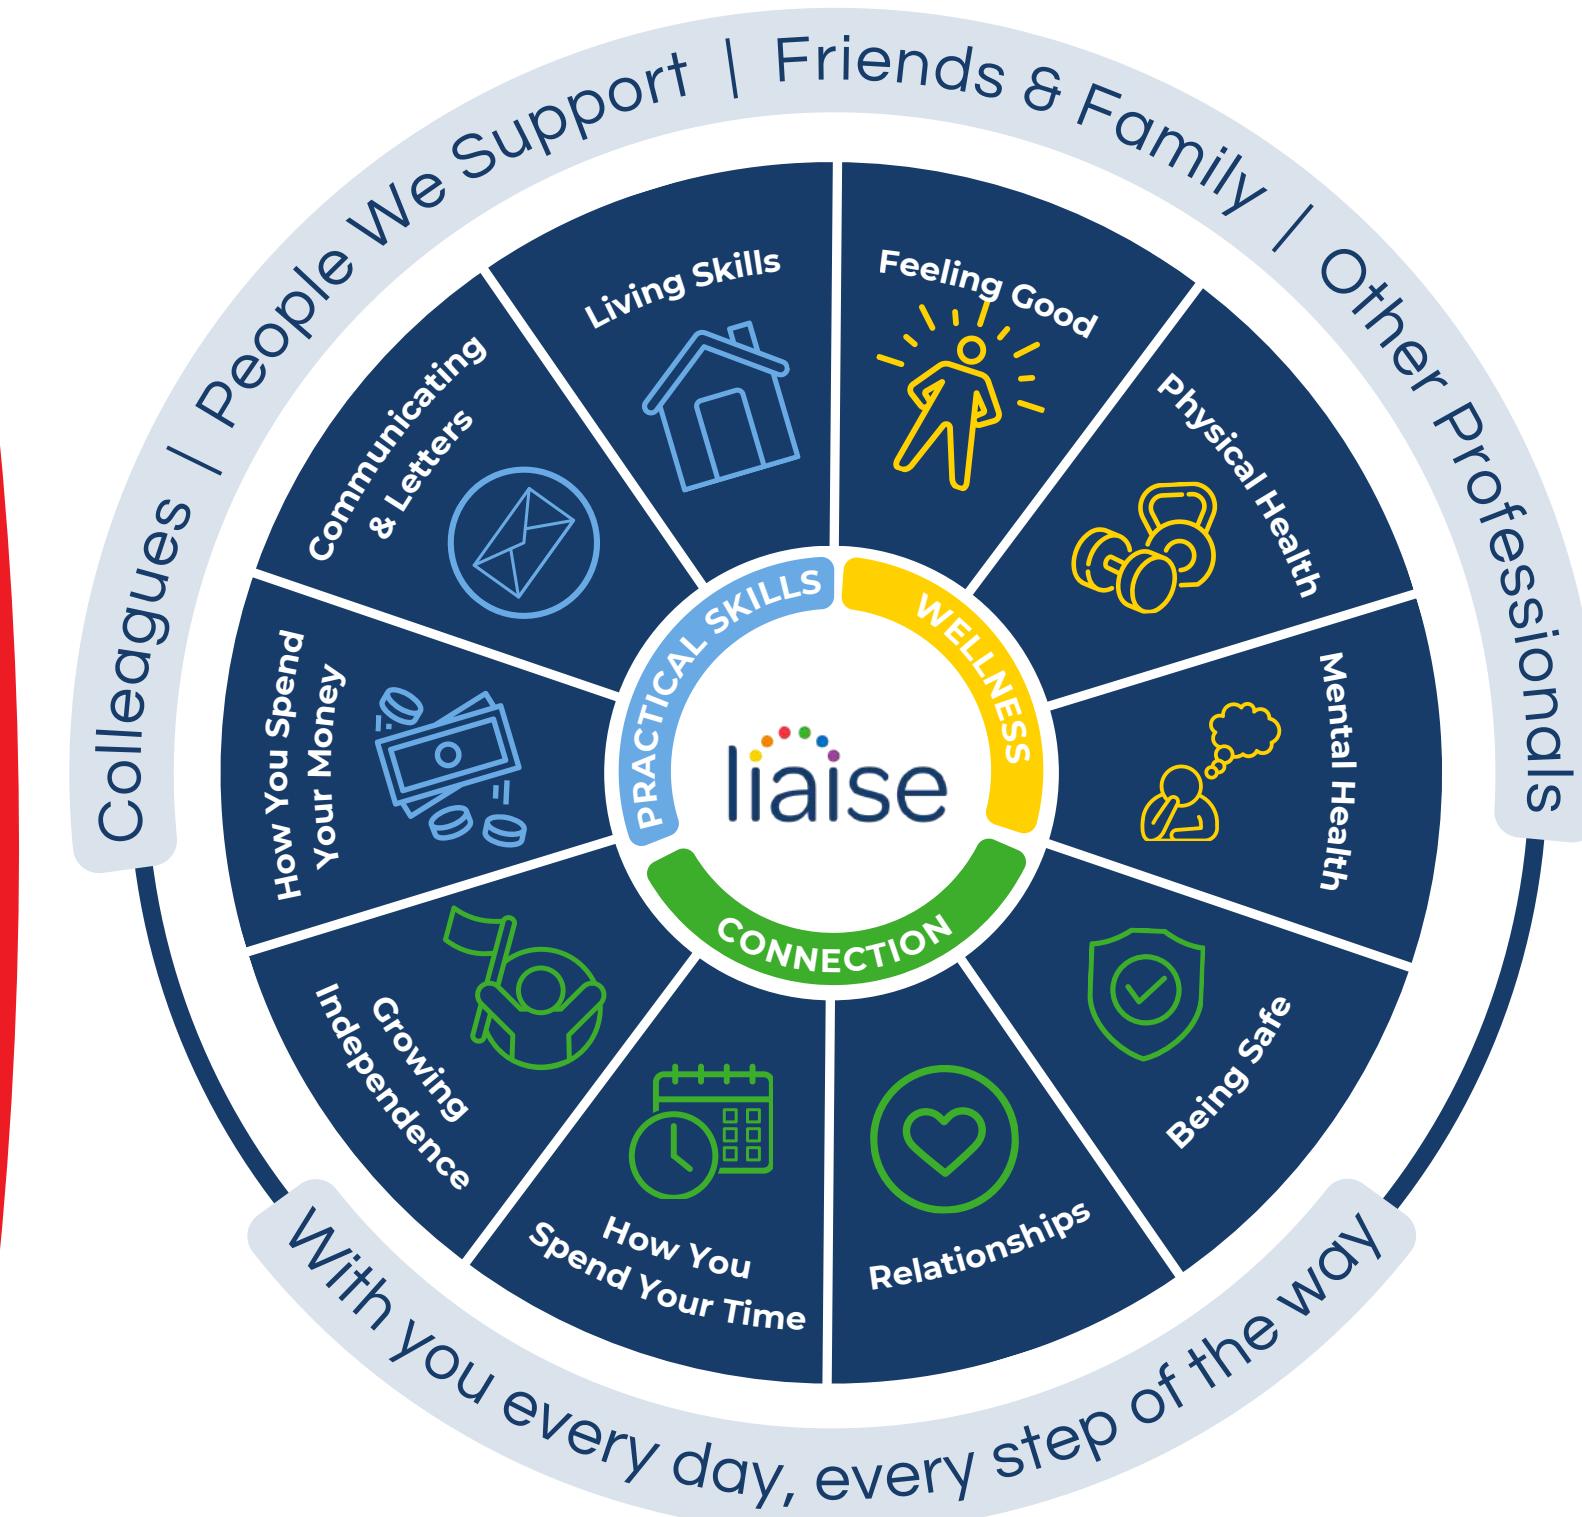

Improving lives

Built on the principles of Positive Behaviour Support (PBS) and Proact-SCIPr-UK training, our approach prioritises respect for individual needs, promotes independence, and ensures safety and well-being.

We go beyond standard care by equipping all team members with specialist PBS training, guided by the expertise of PBS Practitioners, Speech and Language Therapists, and Occupational Therapists. This collaborative approach enables us to deliver high-quality, tailored support that drives meaningful outcomes for the people we support.

Our Outcomes Pathway Model helps us design bespoke care strategies based on each person's hopes, goals, and aspirations.

Outcomes Based Success

When Lia first expressed a desire to work, the path ahead wasn't clear. Her disability, past experiences, and limited opportunities meant she faced uncertainty and hesitation. But the team at Lucas House believed in her potential, and they committed to building a supportive environment around her. Before placing Lia in work roles, staff arranged practical support and guidance, training, structured routines, and confidence-building steps. Understanding Lia's unique needs, they tailored roles that suited her strengths.

Today, Lia volunteers at a museum café and works at a community bookstore. She serves customers, manages the till, and organises collections, tasks she once could only dream of. More than just roles, these opportunities have transformed Lia's confidence, independence, and sense of purpose. With every shift, she proves how powerful inclusive employment can be when belief, planning and support come together.
